

Valeo Service Eastern Europe Ltd. Integrated Management System Policy

Valeo Service Eastern Europe establishes, based on effective VSEE business strategy, 5 axes strategy and commitments of Sustainable development charter of Valeo Group, Integrated Management System Policy aimed to build close relations with Customers, to gain loyalty of Employees, local authorities and community and to achieve differential advantage. Effective implementation of its objectives will be provided by:

- obeying present standards, legislation requirements in the whole area of operations of the Company, Valeo Group requirements, code of ethics and other applicable in Valeo Service Eastern Europe,
- regular reduction of risks and accident, occupational disease and near-miss occurrences prevention according to Valeo standards and law requirements,
- constant development of VSEE Employees in professional skills, quality, ecology and occupational health and safety through relevant training program and promotion of practices and behaviors supporting these ideas,
- assuring influence of all Employees on implementation method of present Policy by taking into consideration their comments, opinions and improvement proposals,
- cooperation with internal and external organizations, that in an effective manner will support prevention and minimization the negative effects of VSEE operations on the environment,
- processes optimization assuring safe for environment waste management through its segregation and transferring to re-use or utilization and protection of natural resources through limitation of energy, water, fuel and paper consumption,
- maintaining close cooperation with our Customers and Suppliers stimulating development and improvement of products and services offered by VSEE,
- implementation of indicators allowing to follow-up trends and actions verification for constant improvement of Integrated Management System.

Valeo Service Eastern Europe implements above Policy based on documented and implemented Integrated Management System compliant with requirements of standard EN ISO 9001:2008, EN ISO 14001:2005, OHSAS 18001:2007

Efficiency and constant improvement of Integrated Management System is an object of special concern of Valeo Service Eastern Europe Management who commits to provide resources necessary for its effective maintenance and improvement.

Management and all Employees commit to obey Integrated Management System Policy.

Warsaw, 19/01/2015